In Memoriam

In sad but loving memory of our mother and wife, Ollie B. Martin, who departed this life four years ago October 31, 1970.
Oft'times, we cannot understand;
Nor can we see the Master's hand.
That calls to realms of Heaven above
The soul of one we dearly love.
But God in wisdom knoweth best . . .
His promised grace for every test.
Sadly missed by husband, Children & Grandchildren
10-31-1p

In loving memory of my husband, T. Randolph Gilbert, who passed away October 30, 1965.
To your grave I often go
Flowers I place with loving care
I feel that you are near me,
While I sadly linger there.
Devoted wife,
Katie

In loving memory of Robert P. Lawhorn, who passed away one year ago October 30, 1973.
Your gentle face and patient smile,
With sadness we recall.
You had a kindly word for each and died beloved by all.

You are not forgotten love one
Nor will you ever be,
As long as life and memory last
We will remember thee.

We miss you now, our hearts are sore,
As time goes by we miss you more.
Your loving smile, your gentle face,
No one can fill your vacant place.

Sadly missed by wife
children and their families

In memory of Donald W. Pugh who left us four years ago October 31, 1970.
A wonderful son and brother and aid,
A better son God never made.
A wonderful worker so brave and true,
One in a million that son was you!

Sadly missed by:
Mother, Brother, Sisters

Modernistic Club News

Regular preaching service was held at First Baptist Sunday at the 11:00 o'clock service hour. An appreciative audience turned out. Rev. Davis was present with a very good sermon, which was enjoyed by those who attended the morning worship.Music was rendered by the combined choirs of the church. The music was very beautiful.

The Sunday Church School was well attended at the 9:45 hour. Supt. J. A. Hamlet was present, and a very fine audience turned out, and had a very successful Sunday lesson. The discussion was very interesting, and those who came out felt that hour was well spent, and much helpful information was gained, by those in attendance.

A very nice number of members, and friends journeyed to Mt. Shiloh Baptist Church in Monroe, Va. with the Rev. Lawing Sunday Oct. 27, at 3 p.m. The occasion was "a mortage rally". The Rev. R. Q. lawing was guest speaker and his Mount Shiloh Baptist Choir were special guest. The pastor of the church in Monroe, Va. is the Rev. J. W. Paige. The Rev. Paige introduced the guest speaker, his church choir, and friends to the audience.

A very large crowd attend the special service, and all gave an account of a very lovely time with the Rev. Paige, and his good members of Mount Shiloh Baptist Church.

The Rev. Lawing preached an impressive message to the people and the choir sang beautiful music.

The program was a great success for all concerned.

"The Mortage rally" was sponsored by the "Men's Club" of the Mt. Shiloh Baptist Church, of Monroe, Va.

The sick here and out of town are still on the road to recovery. We are still sending up prayers for the sick here and in other places. We thank God for being so good and kind to all in general.

We learned that Zion Baptist Church School in Pamplin, Va. was very successful Sunday as usual. A large number turned out at the hour, and enjoyed a very interesting lesson taught by the teachers of the church school. The offering was very liberal. All who attended Sunday School, enjoyed the well taught school and all gained helpful information.

The Gospel Four, and The Soul Searchers rendered very fine musical program Sunday, at St. Paul Baptist Church in Rustburg, Va. Oct. 27 at 7 p.m. An appreciative audience turned out to the program. The program was a great success. Mr. Tibbie Allen is director of the group.

In and out of town: Mrs. O. W. Smith her daughter, Myrtle visited in the home of the Miss H. B. Stevens and family, Sunday afternoon. The Stevens enjoyed their guest very much. Miss Stevens appreciated the beautiful house plant given by Mrs. O. W. Smith and Myrtle. The gift was very timely.

Those who accompanied the Rev. Lawing to Monroe Sunday from the county were Mr. and Mrs. Hanock, Mr. and Mrs. Robinson, Mesdames Eva Allen and Dorothy Stevens. The visitors enjoyed the evening service very much at Mt. Shiloh Church. Pastor Paige made the guest feel right at home in his beautiful church.

We are happy to know that Mr. James Reid has returned home from Lynchburg General Hospital is doing as well as could be expected. We hope that Mr. Reid will soon be strong and healthy again.

Mr. and Mrs. Pleas Patterson and children of Washington, D.C., Mr. Phillip Langhorn and friend from Maryland visited with their aunt, Mrs. Alpha Brown over the week end. Sister Brown was very happy to have had the visitors, and relatives come and visit with the family in Appomattox. They all had a lovely week end, while here.
See you next week!!!

The Appomattox County Extension Homemakers held their annual Achievement Day program Saturday, October 26, 1974 at Appomattox County High School. Pictured above are: (from left to right) Mrs. Georgia Fleshman - Spout Spring Progressive; Mrs. Geraldine Marshall - Spout Spring; Mrs. Helen Routon - Stonewall; and Mrs. Cheryl Corvello - Country Lane Club. These ladies served as the planning committees for this annual event.

Brownies Receive Flag

Mrs. Sara Robinson, left, presents flag to Mrs. Nancy Grishaw at Brownie Troop 361 meeting Monday. The flag was presented on behalf of the Woodmen of the World of Appomattox.

Art Club Elects Officers

Courtney King was elected president of the Appomattox County High School Art Club at their 1974 organizational meeting October 16.

Buddy Hudson was elected to the post of Vice-president. Nancy Stratton is secretary, and the new treasurer is Gloria Hamlett while Lisa Mitchell is the new reporter.

ICC members for 1974 are Beth Smoak and William Henry.

Club members voted to enter a float in the Christmas Parade and to schedule some fund raising activities in the near future.

Discussing Clean-Up Plans

Mrs. D. O. Kepler, left, discusses community clean-up campaign with Carla Varner. Miss Varner is sponsoring project as part of Virginia FHA Officer's Project.

FHA Project Gains Momentum

Carla Varner, State President of the Future Homemakers of America, has enrolled the aid of Mrs. D. O. Kepler of Police Tower Road in her state officers' project of beautifying the community.

Mrs. Kepler, a native of New York, has presented several ideas for consideration, including that a main part of the project should be to seek a spot of land, and by planting flowers and keeping the area clean make it an attraction for the tourists.

Mrs. Kepler pointed out, "With the many tourists Appomattox attracts, there should be beauty in what they see, not over grown hedges and bare spots. Nor should they be faced with trash along the streets, highways and waterways. They come to see the beautiful Appomattox everyone speaks of, by planting flowers and keeping trash clear, we can present that beauty."

Miss Varner says, "Appomattox is fortunate to have a citizen like Mrs. Kepler. She has offered to help in planting flowers or in any way possible. With her fantastic knowledge of flowers we are lucky to have her help."

Appointed Armstrong Floor Fashion Center

The Carpet House, Triangle Plaza Shopping Center, Appomattox, has been appointed an official Armstrong Floor Fashion Center.

An Armstrong Floor Fashion Center store offers the latest in shopping convenience, including decorator - trained salespersons, easy payment plans, and a written guarantee for materials and installation.

Each store is committed to maintaining a spacious, attractive flooring department where the customer can page through eye-level leaf displays holding more than 300 patterns and colors.

Sales personnel are on hand to give advice on the decorative and practical aspects of floors. A special color - coordination display containing wallcoverings, fabrics, and paint samples permits the shopper to compare flooring selections in a variety of decorating schemes.

The Armstrong Floor Fashion Center program was begun in 1970, and consists of a nationwide network of independent retail stores with the most modern, complete flooring departments available.
